Lasioglossum and a blossom

Sweat bee approaches
Pink flower is so tempting
Sweetness promising

Insects go on a guided tour

Traveling is such fun
We eat delicious flowers
Meet lots of new bugs

Beetle disguised as a tortoise

Look carefully here
Can you see the head and feet
Beneath beetle's shell?

Why I love macro

Take a closer look
An explosion of colour
Shows another world

A Sawfly larva
Cruising the elderberry
Hi, Baby Bunting

Carol Berney's insects, larva and haiku

Sunflower Maggot Fly wants a new name

I'm mellow yellow
Though I really hate my name
What would you call me?

Four-lined Plant Bug

Here's another nymph
In quite a nifty outfit
It's really stylin'

Ahem....

Naughty hover flies
Pretending to be biplanes
Must be spring fever

Six-spotted Orbweaver Spider

Are you scared of me
Should you scream and run away
Or are you quite brave
